U.S. ARMY CHALLENGES COMMUNITIES TO A CLIMB

MILWAUKEE (April 13, 2004) – The U.S. Army will tour several Wisconsin and Michigan communities later this month with its Rock Wall Exhibit. This Exhibit challenges climbers of all experience levels to “see what it takes” in An Army of One. The 24-foot Exhibit promotes physical fitness, self-confidence, and personal courage. The April tour schedule follows below:

April 17, 2004	Fox Cities Stadium (Appleton)	11 a.m. – 1 p.m.
April 19, 2004	Univ. of Wisconsin Marinette	9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
April 21, 2004	Nicolet College (Rhinelander)	12 noon – 5 p.m.
April 23, 2004	Michigan Tech Univ. (Houghton)	9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

All interested climbers must weigh between 40-250 pounds, be in good health, wear full-toed shoes and wear the approved safety wear and harness system provided at the Exhibit. Parental permission is required for those age 17 and under. Permission forms are available at your local Army recruiting station or at the Exhibit. Admission is free to the public.
