

ARMY RESERVE

SEPTEMBER SURGE - UP TO $52,000

Do you know someone who is looking for something to do (and could use some extra cash)? For a limited time, the Army Reserve has increased the non prior service enlistment bonus to the maximum amount allowed by law. From now until the end of September 2007, new enlistees will receive money totaling up to $52,600 for a 6 year enlistment.

Better yet, with each person who enlists, you may be eligible for up to $2,000 through one of two exciting programs: the Army Reserve-Recruiting Assistance Program (AR-RAP), please visit, <http://www.ar-rap.com/> and the Sergeant Major of the Army Recruiting Team (SMART), please visit <https://www.usarec.army.mil/smart/login.asp> for more details.

If your friends are ready to become Army Strong, they can join the Army Reserve and receive an Enlistment Bonus of $20,000, a Student Loan Repayment Program benefit of $20,000, and a Montgomery GI Bill Kicker benefit of $350 per month for 36 months ($12,600 total). This entire benefit package is valued at $52,600.

Additionally, if they are college bound, they can take advantage of the Education Career Stabilization (ECS) AND receive up to $42,600.

The ECS program allows your friends to join the Army Reserve in September for a 6 year enlistment and not be mobilized while attending college for at least two years...guaranteed. Additionally, they can earn a $10,000 Enlistment Bonus, a Student Loan Repayment Program benefit of $20,000, and the Montgomery GI Bill Kicker benefit of $350 per month for 36 months ($12,600 total). This entire benefit package is valued at $42,600.
