Army Reserve offers quick-ship enlistment bonuses up to $3,000

FORT KNOX, Ky. – The U.S. Army Recruiting Command today announced increased enlistment bonuses for individuals who enlist in the Army Reserve and agree to ship to Basic Combat Training within 60 days.

Applicants who enlist in the Army Reserve and ship within 30 days of their contract date may be eligible for a $3,000 bonus. Those who enlist in the Army Reserve and ship between 31 and 60 days from the date of contract may be eligible for a $2,000 bonus.

These bonuses may be combined with other existing Army Reserve bonuses for a total of up to $8,000.

The Army Reserve plays an integral and valuable part in America's military defense because of the experience, competence and readiness of its Soldiers. Army Reserve Soldiers combine civilian skills with military training to provide specialized support for military missions around the world. Service in the Army Reserve offers individuals the chance to make a difference in their communities and throughout the world, and to gain valuable, rewarding experiences like no other job can provide.
