

Biography

Sergeant 1st Class Felix Gomez

Non Commissioned Officer in Charge, Aviation Detachment
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Miami, Florida

School Attended: National University of Nicaragua

Biographical Sketch

Sergeant 1st Class Felix Gomez is a 15T UH 60 Helicopter Repairer serving as the aviation noncommissioned officer in charge for the Army Parachute Team's Aviation Detachment.

Gomez enlisted into the Army in 1992 and upon completion of his initial entry training at Fort Eustis, Virginia he went to Ft. Campbell, KY, Germany, Bosnia, Kosovo (twice), Iraq and then finally Ft. Bragg, NC.

Felix Gomez has earned many accolades such as Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal (five Oak Leaf Clusters) and an Aviation Medal known as the Order of St. Michael.

Before the Army Gomez started work in Aviation; for three years he studied with the Russian Military Academy, "Frunze", of the former Soviet Union where he also added Russian to English and Spanish as a multilingual communicator. Over the past 2 years he has completed over 2,000 hours of volunteer time to the Hispanic Church as a Distinguished Group Faith Leader. SFC Felix Gomez has also completed an Associate's degree as a Mechanical Engineer and is currently working on a Baccalaureates in Social Science.

In his free time he enjoys running, volleyball, bike riding.

www.armygoldenknights.com

Prepared by: Office of Media Relations
U.S. Army Parachute Team
2175 Reilly Road, Stop A
Fort Bragg, NC 28310-5000
Tel 910-396-7423 Fax 910-396-8325

ARMY STRONG®