

Biography

Sergeant Timothy O'Neal

Demonstration Parachutist, Black Team
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Wilmore, Kentucky
School Attended: Ashbury College

Biographical Sketch

SGT Timothy O'Neal is serving on the Team as a demonstrator for the Black Demonstration Team.

Tim enlisted into the U. S. Army more than five years ago and attended Basic Training, Advanced Individual Training, and Airborne School as an Infantryman at Ft Benning, GA.

Following his schooling O'Neal was assigned to Fort Lewis, Washington and Fort Bragg, North Carolina and has served three deployments. He served in IRAQ, Haiti and Afghanistan and has been awarded an ARCOM and an AAM for his performances.

SGT O'Neal was first assigned to the team in November this 2010 as a support person to assist the Tandem Section with the hundreds of video productions sent worldwide with numerous Centers of Influences telling the Army story. He now works as a Demonstration Parachutist representing the excellence of the Army and it's Soldiers to the public.

He has 25 military static line jumps, and is taking on the skill of freefall parachuting with 300 jumps to date.

In his free time he thoroughly enjoys Mountain Biking, Road Biking and Trail running.

www.armygoldenknights.com

Prepared by: Office of Media Relations
U.S. Army Parachute Team
2175 Reilly Road, Stop A
Fort Bragg, NC 28310-5000
Tel 910-396-7423 Fax 910-396-8325

ARMY STRONG.